

WILD

AMAZING
ANIMALS
IN A CHANGING WORLD

Red-necked Stint

Calidris ruficollis

[Secure Vulnerable ENDANGERED Extinct]

MELBOURNE MUSEUM

Victoria
The Place To Be

Animal type | Bird

Environment | Wetlands

Size | 13–16 cm long

Diet | Omnivore

Did you know?

This animal is displayed with its Victorian Conservation status

They feed on small
invertebrates and seeds

They can fly
3200 kilometres
without stopping

museumvictoria.com.au/wild